

'In a league of their own': archives of the history of British sport and physical recreation

Annual Conference British Records Association

Thursday 26 November 2015

Swedenborg House
20-21 Bloomsbury Way, London WC1A 2TH

The British Records Association is a registered charity (no. 227464/ACL) founded in 1932. The Association aims to encourage and assist with the preservation, care, use and publication of records.

Booking form

'In a league of their own': archives of the history of British sport and physical recreation

Annual Conference of the British Records Association
Thursday 26 November 2015

To book, please go online to BRA and pay via Evenbrite OR Fill in this form and return it to:
The BRA, c/o West Library, Bridgeman Road, London, N1 1BD.

Name

Institution

Address

Postcode

Daytime tel. no.

Email

Please tick as appropriate:

- I am a member of the BRA/ British Society of Sports History (BSSH) £60
- I am not a member of the BRA/BSSH Early bird price /book before 10 Oct £65
- I am not a member of the BRA/HHAG Book after 10 Oct £75
- Unwaged £65
- I am a student £35
- I would like to attend the Maurice Bond Memorial Lecture only - FREE
- I enclose a cheque made payable to the British Records Association
- Please invoice my institution or me

Total _____

- I enclose a stamped addressed envelope for receipt
- Please include my name on the delegates list for distribution on the day

Do you have any special dietary or access requirements? Please give details:

Programme

09.45 Registration and coffee

10.15 Welcome

Anthony Smith, Chair of the British Records Association

10.20 'We will play with a ball full of wynde': sport at Eton since the 15th century

Eleanor Hoare, Eton College Archivist

11.00 'Upon the Elysian Stream': An Oxford College Boat Club's archives and its oarsmen

Mark Blandford-Baker, Home Bursar, Magdalen College, Oxford

11.40 Bedford Physical Training College: the female tradition

Karen Davies, Archivist, Bedford Physical Education and Levick Boyd archives, University of Bedfordshire.

12.20 'Hosts and Champions': celebrating Scotland's contribution to the Commonwealth Games

Karl Magee, University Archivist, University of Stirling

12.35 Lunch

13.45 From the Auto Windscreens Shield to the Zenith Data Systems Cup: the Collections and Archives of the National Football Museum

Dr Alexander Jackson, Collections Officer, National Football Museum

14.25 Bloody shirts and muddy boots: tackling the Rugby Football League archive at Heritage Quay

Robert Clegg, Collections Access Officer, Heritage Quay, Univ of Huddersfield

15.05 Bowling along for two hundred years

Dr Nat Alcock, Chairman of the Records Preservation Section, BRA

15.45 Tea

16.15 Maurice Bond Memorial Lecture - Dr Fiona Skillen

Researching Women's Sports History: the Challenges and the Rewards

Glasgow Caledonian University and Chair of British Society of Sports History

17.15 AGM

18.00 Close

ANNUAL CONFERENCE British Records Association
Swedenborg House, 20-21 Bloomsbury Way, London WC1A 2TH

The Swedenborg Society is a publisher, library, events space, museum, bookshop and registered charity. In addition to organizing events, lectures, conferences, exhibitions, performances and film screenings; we also publish a large selection of literature relating to the work of the philosopher, scientist, inventor, astronomer, mathematician, parliamentary figure and visionary Emmanuel Swedenborg (1688–1772). The Society's Grade II listed premises is in Bloomsbury, central London. <http://www.swedenborg.org.uk>

Access

There is wheelchair access through the bookshop using ramps Please let us know in advance if required. There is an adapted disabled toilet on the ground floor.

Plan your journey by using TFL's Journey Planner

For directions and latest travel news visit www.tfl.gov.uk/

By Underground/Rail

Holborn (Piccadilly and Central line) or Tottenham Court Road (Northern line)

By Bus

19, 38, 55

By Bicycle

The nearest cycle hire docking station is Bury Place, Holborn

By Car/Motorbike

Parking is severely limited in the area and we recommend you use public transport.

.....
For further information about the British Records Association or for a membership form contact the BRA

PLEASE NOTE NEW ADDRESS

c/o West Library, Bridgeman Road, London, N1 1BD.

Tel: 020 7833 0428

Email: info@britishrecordsassociation.org.uk Web: www.britishrecordsassociation.org.uk

BRA thanks to

CONSERVATION BY DESIGN LIMITED
A Larson-Juhl Company

